

NEW! Dewey Video Recording and Doc Cam Stand with Ring Light

Recording lessons, demonstrations or connecting with students can be possible (and affordable) with just the basics, like the new Dewey with the addition of a ring light. Dewey the Document Camera Stand has been helpful to teachers as they suddenly had to teach remotely and with hybrid models as schools reopened. With a built-in ring light right on the stand, recordings can be properly illuminated.

Dewey's device holder accommodates tablets and smartphones and swivels to record the teacher or the desktop for showing hands-on demonstrations.
